

National Trust of Australia (ACT)

Ginninderra Blacksmith Shop

Located off the south bound carriageway of Barton Highway between Gold Creek Road and Gundaroo Drive.

Archaeological research into this simple 1859 structure has revealed a wealth of local history and lifestyle from the nineteenth century. Come and join National Trust archaeologist, Dr Peter Dowling, in unravelling the past.

National Trust of Australia (ACT)

Life at the Top

This tour encompassing Cabramurra and its surrounds will give an insight into daily life in the late 50's, with visits to some of the engineering projects of the Snowy Mountains Hydro Electric Scheme. Participants will also explore the natural beauty and breathtaking views of the Snowy Mountains.

5 - 6 April

$350 per person

Bookings Essential 02 6230 0533

National Trust of Australia (ACT)

Place, People and Heritage of Recherche Bay - Public Lecture

Theatre 5 Manning Clark Centre, Australian National University

In 2001 evidence of a 1791-1793 French scientific expedition was uncovered in south-west Tasmania. Emeritus Professor John Mulvaney will discuss the archaeology, historical and scientific significance of Recherche Bay.

8 April Drinks 6.30pm, lecture 7pm

$10 ($8 for National Trust Members)

Bookings Essential 02 6230 0533

National Trust of Australia (ACT)

From Sea to Land

Departs from the car park behind the National Archives

Become a geologist for a day, join National Trust Life Member and geologist Robert Abell and experience the geological evolution of Central Canberra by visiting local sites millions of years old. Bring packed lunch, water, sunscreen etc. Wine and nibbles provided at end of tour

13 April 9.30am - 4pm

Limit 20, travel by private car pool

Bookings Essential 02 6230 0533

National Trust of Australia (ACT)

Hall Heritage Walk

Hall village named after Henry Hall who was the first resident landholder of the Ginninderra district was proclaimed in 1882. Several of the original buildings are included in the heritage walk. The walk is limited to 18 participants.

20 April 2pm - 3.30pm

$12.50 (includes afternoon tea)

Bookings Essential 02 6230 0533

National Trust of Australia (ACT)

Tour of St John's Church and Churchyard

Cnr Constitution Ave & Anzac Parade West, Reid Jean Salisbury, Honorary Administrator of St John's Churchyard, will conduct a tour of the historic memorials dating from 1844 to pioneer families, clergy, prominent military officers, politicians and public servants.

12 April 10.30am onwards

Gold coin donation

Booking Essential 02 6230 0533

