

EVENT ALERT

Monday March 23, 2009

WHAT DO OUR POLITICIANS THINK ABOUT HERITAGE?

On Wednesday April 29 you can hear what politicians, the caretakers of our cultural and physical heritage, really think about heritage.

Is "heritage" a political hot-potato? What will the politicians do, and say, come Election time?

NSW's top three "planning" politicians will be speaking at a breakfast, hosted by Quentin Dempster (ABC TV's Stateline):

- Hon. Kristina Keneally, Minister for Planning
- Brad Hazzard, MP, Shadow Minister for Planning
- Sylvia Hale, MLC, NSW Greens Spokesman for Planning and Heritage

What: The National Trust of Australia's Corporate Breakfast

When: Wednesday April 29

Where: Intercontinental Sydney, 117 Macquarie Street, Fort Macquarie Room

Time: 7.30am to 9am

Bookings: Tickets can be purchased from: http://www.nsw.nationaltrust.org.au/events/corporatebreakfast/Committing_To_Our_Heritage/default.asp

Media: Media wishing to attend the event should call Kathy Scott, Media & Communications Manager on 02 9258 0123 or Kathryn Hibbert, PR Consultant on 0410 509 332. For interviews, please also contact either Kathy Scott or Kathryn Hibbert.

- ENDS -