Family Fun on Observatory Hill

The National Trust's statewide Heritage Festival is in full swing in early April with over 300 events across the state <http://www.nsw.nationaltrust.org.au/events/festival/> (select 'Program' drop down menu to see what's on in your local area)

On Sunday April 19, Sydney-siders are invited to join the celebrations for National Trust Day on Observatory Hill, The Rocks.

A great day of fun is planned for all ages.

From 11am there will be craft activities for the kids, great jazz music and wine tasting for the adults to enjoy.

Tickets $10 adults and $5 children (< 12yrs) will give you entry to both the National Trust's S. H. Ervin Gallery to view Salon Des Refusés and a tour of the Sydney Observatory including viewing the 'Sydney in 3D' space movie and the 'Treasures of Sydney Observatory' exhibition.

At 12 noon celebrity food journalist, Joanna Savill will judge the inaugural National Trust Bake-Off. Local restaurants have been invited to bake a cake in line with the Heritage Festival's theme 'Our Place in Space'. After the judging you will be able to buy a slice of the gourmet creations made by high profile restaurants including Tetsuya's, Quay, La Patisserie and Pony Lounge & Dining.
